LOCAL NEWS.

Brief Mention.
High water to-day at 9:18 a. m.
Buy a new house—R. E. Baldwin.
There are many cases of diphtheria in New Britain.
Make ready for liberal donations to the orphans to-morrow.
Leading Middletown men organized a board of trade last night.
Chairman Macdonald of the state road commission inspected roads at Plainville and Berlin yesterday.
Jupiter, a New Haven horse, is entered by W. S. Everett, New Haven, in the 2:30 class, for the races in New Britain this afternoon.
Bridgeport's public schools close Friday to give the teachers an opportunity to attend the state convention of teachers to be held here.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Connecticut road will be held at the railroad building to-day, beginning at 12 o'clock noon.
The new $50,000 Masonic Temple in Hartford, which has been erected by the Masonic bodies in that city, will be formally dedicated by the fraternity in November.
An exciting football game will take place Friday morning between Hillhouse and New Britain high schools teams. The rivalry between these two eleven is intense.
The funeral of Jane Austin, widow of the late Henry Austin, will take place at Trinity chapel, George street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Scoville will officiate.
The state board of health report for the month says typhoid fever is quite prevalent in the state. It has manifested itself in forty-seven towns during the month. Danbury has twenty-three cases and Hartford has twenty-six cases.
The L. Candee & Co.'s rubber factory was closed yesterday on account of the holiday. The erection of the new boiler is rapidly progressing under the able direction of the foreman for the Clonbrook Steam Boiler company, Mr. T. C. Graham.
Patrick O'Hara, aged sixty, of 281 East street, a truck driver for Michael Elmes, who does the carting for the Winchester Repeating Arms company, was thrown from his truck while driving on Canal street yesterday morning, and instantly killed.
General E. E. Greeley has been re-elected a director and president of the Stamford Street Railway company. Samuel F. Greeley was elected a director, as was also D. O. Lombard of this city, who is a purchasing agent for timber of the Consolidated road.
Attorney Jason P. Thompson's condition had not materially changed last evening from what it was Monday night, and still remained critical in the extreme. Early yesterday morning he had an alarming attack of unusual weakness, but did not seem quite so depressed last evening.
A boy about seventeen years of age, giving the name of George Watson, was arrested on Chapel street last night for begging and on his way to the station house broke away from the officer, but was caught again after a chase. It was subsequently learned that his right name was George McCarthy of Bridgeport.

Now to the Supreme Court.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Attorney General Harmon has instructed District Attorney McKiesick of San Francisco, in charge of the government's interests in the case of the late ex-Senator Stanford, recently decided adversely to the United States by the supreme court of California, to perfect an appeal as rapidly as possible and carry the case up to the United States supreme court. In all the courts in which the case has so far been tried the decisions have been adverse to the government.

OFF FOR PHILADELPHIA

To Attend the Annual Meeting of the American Gas Light Association. Charles D. Sherman of the New Haven Gaslight company left last evening for Philadelphia to attend the twenty-third annual meeting of the American Gaslight association, which will be held in the Continental hotel, October 16-18. The meeting will be called to order on Wednesday morning by the president, Walton Clark of Philadelphia. The program includes a visit to the Welsbach factories at Gloucester, going by boat, for an inspection of the plant, and a most elaborate display of incandescent illumination in the evening. On Friday the members of the association will go to Atlantic City by special train, returning the same afternoon. An informal reception will be tendered the visitors on Wednesday at the hotel headquarters.

New Haven Boys Won.

Intended to Catch Your Eye.

Don't skip this paragraph because it is small. It is worth reading for it tells about The Pincola Balsam, a certain remedy for cough, tickling in the throat and the stopped up feeling in the upper part of the chest. A simple cough may turn into something serious if let alone. It ceases to vex you and to keep you awake at night when you have allayed the inflammation in your throat with Ely's Pincola Balsam. The druggists sell it for twenty-five cents.

90 Planos in 17 Days.

A Strong Factor

in this week's selling is in Underwear for both sexes.

Women's Ypsilanti Union Suits at $1.00.
Women's Equestrian Tights, $1.00.
Women's "Norfolk and New Brunswick" garments, 75c each.
Women's camel's hair and natural wool garments, $1.00 each.
Women's "Famous" Egyptian garments, 50c each.
Women's fifty-cent Fleece Jersey Vests, 3 for $1.00.
Children's "Norfolk and New Brunswick" garments, 50 cents to $1.00.

Children's Union Suits at $1.12 1/2 to $1.50.
Children's "Phyllis" sanitary garments, $2.50.

There's a window of Underwear expressly for Children and their Mothers. See it.

Hosiery and Underwear Counter.

What the men buy.

"Health" Underwear, good enough for a king. 89c a garment.
The "Glasgow" silver gray garments, at $1.25 each.
"One Dollar" all wool Underwear at $1.00. Greatest thing we ever gave for the money.
The flag (good as a bank) 50 c a garment. Ordinarily $1.00.
Mens' Furnishing Counter.

The Carpenters Cut

right smack into the second floor and sent Oil

Cloths scampering over into the Carpet stock.

You see, alterations and improvements cost in more ways than one. The order is, "Sell your Oil Cloths out of the way," and down goes the price on three grades to 18c., 22c. and 30 c. a yd.

Into this Oil Cloth Sale, we'll throw more than a hundred pieces of Body Brussels Carpet, 17 to 30 yd. lengths, patterns that won't be reordered, but the whole business is ordered out of the house at 75, 85 and 90 c. a yd.

Now you shrewd shoppers who read it, heed it.

Carpet Hall, Second Floor.

Furniture Week

Housekeepers quickly recognize the advantage of buying furniture where all other house furnishings are sold; where the rise of wages and the fall of factories doesn't disturb low prices; where furniture doesn't fall to pieces before one becomes fairly acquainted with it; where orders may be left and goods delivered at the buyer's convenience.

Furniture, Second and Third Floors.

Long Curtains or short curtains, Window Curtains or Sash Curtains. Heavy Curtains or light curtains, lace or otherwise. Portieres, Shades, Furniture coverings, and everything that goes to make up a good, complete Upholstery stock poorly priced. All this awaits you in our recently renovated and enlarged Upholstery Room. Second Floor.

What About Silks?

You know our silk motto—"a dollar a yard and less." Let's think of a few silks we sell.

Persian Silk, Striped Silks, Swivel Silks, Check Silks, Corded Silks, Surah Silks, Taffeta Silks, India Silks, China Silks, Japan Silks, Plain Silks.

Silks anything but unfashionable, anything but expensive, anything but proudly priced.
